I could use this space by giving shout-outs to friends and quoting inside jokes, but by the time these carefully crafted words journey from the September writing stage to the May yearbook page, I doubt it would make sense. So I'll leave by saying I'll keep track of you all the best I can, but in case I don't see you: Good afternoon, good evening, and goodnight.

"It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; because there is not effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those timid souls who know neither Victory nor Defeat."

"We can't call people with out wings Angels, so we call them Friends instead."

As time changed and seasons have past we've developed a bond that will forever last.
As we say good-bye in our final year
We try to hold back those overpowering tears.
We remember those times that seem so long ago
As we grew up together
through highs and lows.
We knew this day would eventually be here but had no idea of its overwhelming fear.
The years have flown by but the memories remain these faces and names will always stay the same.
So as you go out into this world unknown Always remember there's no place like home.

*"That's what a friend is for,
when your lost in the darkness and searching for the light, to help you through those lonely nights, when everything around you fails just hold out your hand, and I'll come running, that's what friends are for."*

M. S.

*"I get by,
with a little Help from my Friends."*

L. E.

J. O.

"Don't be dismayed at goodbyes.

*A farewell is before you can meet again.
And meeting again after a moment or a lifetime is certain for those who are friends."*
